PROFILE

Committed and enthusiastic programmer with a course in Information Technology who loves to explore new things. Flexible and fast learner person who can adapt to new work environments. To be a part of the organization is the utmost priority to commit and to explore new experiences within the range of my skills for continuous career development and for organization's needs.

WORK EXPERIENCE

NEWTON'S TECH

January 2024 - February 2024

EDITOR INTERN

Honed my skills through a variety of hands-on projects, gaining valuable insights into the world of programming and design. In this dynamic environment, I have been able to apply and expand my design proficiency, creating visually appealing and effective designs that meet the needs of diverse clients, and the organization. I continue to learn, grow, and strive to push the boundaries of possibilities in design to the limits in the field of my expertise.
